ENROLLMENT

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Tamalpais High School offers a rigorous college preparatory program. Tamalpais High School does not rank its students. The GPA is based on transcript courses on a 4.0 scale taken between ninth through twelfth grades. The weighted GPA is computed by adding one point to all Honors and Advanced Placement courses with a grade of A, B, or C. The class size of 2022 was 422 with an average GPA of 3.7.

We encourage students to take a rigorous academic program that also allows them to pursue their passions and interests, therefore, we do not encourage students to take every AP and Honors course we offer, rather those they have an aptitude for or interest in and to take advantage of the rich opportunities we offer so they may best prepare themselves for lives of meaning and value while maintaining health and balance during high school.
