1. Call Meeting to Order

Board President Leslie Harlander called the meeting to order at 5:05 p.m.

2. Approve Workshop Agenda and Review Board Norms

Ms. Loebbaka read the board norms. M/S/C (Roenisch/Loebbaka), unanimously, to approve the agenda.

3. Public Comments for Items on the Agenda

There were no public comments.

4. Governance Workshop on Racial Equity

The Board welcomed consultant Deborah McKnight to a second workshop on governing for racial equity. They reviewed take-aways from the last workshop and then discussed the Mitch Landrieu 2017 speech that they viewed prior to the meeting. They explored how their reactions to the speech relates to the Anti-racist Resolution and equity non-negotiables. The board, having read "Stamped" by Reynolds and Kendi and "Despite the Best Intentions" by Lewis and Diamond, considered questions such as who is inspiring this work, what metaphorical and tangible monuments in TUHSD need to be addressed, what would be possible in 2021 if we align our values and vision with our practices, and what does the district aspire to become?

5. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 7:05 p.m.
