

Name: Mikaila Smith

Year/Sport: Senior, Tennis

What the coach said: “For three years the team’s doubles player, Mikaila has blossomed this year into a solid performer in the #2 and #3 singles spots. This blossoming is the result of hard work and focus and a desire to realize and exceed her potential. A captain this year, she has been a central part of the team’s success the previous three seasons but this year has truly come into her own.” – Coach Bill Washauer

Name: Anika Kharkar

Year/Sport: Junior, Tennis

What the coach said: “One of the most unselfish players on the team, Anika has devoted herself to playing doubles this season after two years as one of the most reliable singles players on the team. She and her partner (exchange student Lisa Baeumler) have turned in an almost perfect season at #1 doubles, going undefeated in MCAL play through the league playoffs. She is hardworking, consistent, reliable, and steady as a rock, and another central part of the team’s success during her three seasons on as a member of the team.” –Coach Bill Washauer
