

SPECIAL EDUCATION PARAEDUCATOR BOOTCAMP

This series is designed to provide training to those interested in working as a teacher's aid in a special education setting, working with amazing students, as a part of a highly effective team.

JUNE 12-14: 8:30-11:30AM

TRAINING TOPICS TO INCLUDE:

Program Overview

Understand the role of the Paraeducator and being a part of an effective classroom team.

Positive Behavioral Supports

Develop an understanding of how positive behavioral supports improve access to learning.

Communication Skills

Learn typical milestones for language development and strategies to support communication and self-advocacy.

REGISTER

LOCATION:

In-Person: Marin County Office of Education 1111 Las Gallinas Avenue, San Rafael, 94903

MARIN COUNTY
OFFICE OF EDUCATION
building the future... one student at a time

